

WACKY WoRdPLaY Wednesday

Buttons & Figs

Adjective Play

Sentence 1: How many adjectives are used to modify the noun: pillow fort?

While I'm home from school I'm going to build the most crazy, weird, wonderful, towering, grand, spacious, luxurious pillow-fort EVER!

Sentence 2: How many adjectives are used to modify the noun: hands?

After washing for a full 20 seconds, I have the cleanest, shiniest, scrubbed-up, germ-free, lavender-lollipop-scented hands...EVER!

Sentence 3: How many adjectives are used to modify the noun: sandwich

For lunch I'm going to make the tastiest, tallest, widest, greenest, goodness-filled, crunchiest, cheesified, balony-fied, no-vegatablized, scrumdilicious Sandwich...EVER!

Sentence 4: How many adjectives are used to modify the noun: sentence?

After listening to this WWW episode I'm going to write the longest, most adjective-filled, nonsensical, foolish, ill-conceived, smack-yummy, bona fide, certified, official-fied sentence this universe has ever read before....EVER!

WORDPLAY: ADJECTIVES

adjectives, nouns, listening, sentence structure

DIFFICULTY:

